Dale Brown Motivation, BB

Dale Brown arrived in Baton Rouge, Louisiana in March, 1972, with a dream that was perceived by many who knew the LSU Basketball program as impossible. The dream was to make basketball a fan favorite in Tiger Country and to make it a nationally respected program as well.

Dale Brown's straightforward, determined approach, combined with his knowledge of the game, excellent recruiting skills, and his positive philosophy made his dream a reality. Equally amazing was his 25-year career as the Tiger's head coach and winningest coach in LSU BB history. He also has the 2nd most wins in SEC history. 104/160 of Brown's players received their college degrees and those that attended LSU for four years had a graduation rate of 84%.

Coach Brown assisted at Utah State for five years and one year at WSU before becoming the head coach at LSU in 1972. Brown coached basketball for 44 years and now is a motivation speaker and author.

General session topics will be "Getting over the 4 Major Hurdles of Life" and "The 7 Basic Essentials of Coaching" followed by a basketball session on "Freak Defense"

Jeff Smith Golf

Jeff Smith, the Director of Golf at Weber State University, is in his 24th season as the head coach of the Wildcat women's golf team. As Director of Golf, Smith oversees both the men's and women's programs.

Smith led the women's team to their first ever Big Sky championship in 2001. He also coached Wildcat teams to five consecutive second place finishes in the Big Sky from 1995 to 2000. He also won back-to-back Big Sky Coach of the Year awards in 1999 and 2000.

Smith is a native of Ogden, Utah and graduated from Weber State in 1980. For 22 years Smith served as Golf Pro at two different Utah courses. He was named the Utah PGA Teacher of the Year in 1989 and was a recipient of the 1996 PGA Junior Golf Leader Award.

Spencer Wood Motivation, S&C

For the past 12 years Spencer Wood has traveled the globe as an author, teacher and speaker on Mental Skills & Toughness Training, as well as explosive Speed, Quickness and Agility Training. He has spoken at 3 Nike Football COY Awards Clinics, 5 NCAA Basketball Final Fours (NABC and WBCA), 3 National Soccer Coaches Conventions, the American Baseball Coaches Association Convention, and the National Fastpitch Softball Coaches Association Convention. He has also presented at multiple state-wide clinics.

Spencer has a Master's Degree in Exercise Science from California University and a PhD in psychology with an emphasis in sport psychology. His workshops with championship teams at the US Olympic Training Center, in professional leagues such as the NBA, and with teams from major sports in the Big East, Big Ten, ACC, PAC Twelve, Big Twelve, and SEC Conferences have garnered international media coverage on networks such as NBC and ESPN.

Robby Sortore Cheer & Dance

Robby is in his 4th year as the Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) Northwest State Director & Varsity All Star Advisor and was previously an 8 year UCA Head Instructor. At UCA Sortore has the opportunity to learn the most innovative new techniques and ideas in safety, stunting, pyramids, jumps, Game Day, etc. and help implement them to squads across the Northwest. Currently Robby is the coach & choreographer for the nationally ranked Mount Si High School who just came off of a clean sweep at the Washington State Cheerleading Championship (3 teams - 3 State titles).

Sortore started his career as captain of his high school cheer squad and then went on to cheer for the University of Washington. He has worked with numerous All-Star and Championship cheer squads. Robby is more than excited to be a part of the MCA Clinic, sharing his knowledge with MT coaches.

Boo Schexnayder T&F- Jumps

Irving "Boo" Schexnayder is a 34 year veteran coach at the high school, collegiate, and professional levels. He is regarded, internationally, as one of the leading authorities in T&F coaching, training design, speed and power development, biomechanics, and rehabilitation. Most noted for the 12 years he spent at LSU, he is regarded as one of the world's premier field event coaches, having coached 19 NCAA Champions during his collegiate coaching career. He was a part of 12 NCAA Championship teams and a pair of Juco National titles, as well as developing a host of conference champions and All-Americans. Schexnayder coached Walter Davis to multiple World Championships, John Moffitt to a silver medal at the 2004 Olympics, and has mentored 10 Olympians. He served on coaching staff for Team USA 2003 Pan Am Games, the 2006 World Junior Championships, and the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. He has also been a speed specialist, working in NFL player development for nearly 20 years

Dennis Janzen Volleyball

Kevin Peoples Football

A Butte native and Carroll College alumni, Coach Peoples is the current defensive line mentor for the Georgia Southern University Eagles. Peoples spent the 2013 season as defensive line coach for UAB after three seasons at Arkansas, serving as the Razorbacks' defensive tackles coach.

Under Peoples' direction, the 2012 Arkansas defensive line earned a top-25 national ranking in sacks and the Razorbacks boasted a rushing defense that finished in the top 20. The Razorbacks posted consecutive 10-win seasons for just the third time in school history and made back-to-back BCS bowl appearances in 2010 (Sugar Bowl) and 2011 (Cotton Bowl). The 2011 squad capped its 11-2 season with a No. 5 national ranking following a 29-16 victory over Kansas State.

In 2003, he was selected from 500 coaches as one of the recipients of the AFLAC National Assistant COY Award.

David Fiefia Football

David Fiefia is in his first year with Idaho State's football program as the Running Backs/Tight Ends coach. For the past three seasons (2012-2014) he served as an offensive graduate assistant coach at Utah State. In his role, Fiefia assisted the offensive coaches with daily football operations, working primarily with the Aggie running backs and wide receivers. In those three years (30-11) USU played and won back-to-back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history and won just its 4th bowl game ever during the 2014 season.

Under Coach Mick Denney at Utah State, Fiefia was a four-year letter winner at running back from 2000-03, earning first-team all-Sun Belt Conference honors as an all-purpose player in 2003, while also earning second-team all-Sun Belt accolades as both a running back and kick returner that same season.

David will speak on "Leadership: Coaching & Recruiting the whole player" and "Running Backs: Assignment, Alignment, Technique & Finish".

Mario Andaya Volleyball

After a return to the NCAA Division II postseason for the third consecutive season, Mario Andaya is hoping for an encore performance from his Wildcats in 2015, his 20th season at the helm of the Central Washington Volleyball Program.

Andaya, who began his head coaching career with the Wildcats at the tender age of 24 prior to the 1996 season, is now the Dean of Great Northwest Athletic Conference coaches. Having spent more than one-third of his life as Central's volleyball mentor, Andaya, 42, has taken the Wildcats' program from a 5-23 record in its first year as a NCAA Division II member (1998) and turned it into a perennial contender in both the Great Northwest Athletic Conference and the West Region. Andaya is also the school's all-time leader for career coaching victories, with 300. He has taken the program to the NCAA tournament 6 times.

Troy Steiner Wrestling

Troy just completed his 9th season at Oregon State where he assisted Jim Zalesky (2006-12) before being promoted to associate head coach for the 2012-13 season. Prior to Oregon, Steiner was on Zalesky's coaching staff at Iowa, and he also assisted former head coach Joe Wells at Oregon State.

Steiner was a four-time All-American at Iowa from 1990-93 and a NCAA champion in 1992. He won three Big Ten titles at Iowa, compiling a 142-13 career record at 134 and 142 pounds. He and his twin brother, Terry, were part of three national and four Big Ten championship teams. Steiner shares Iowa's school record for best season winning percentage for the 42-0 record he compiled during his junior season. He also ranks 3rd in career wins (148) and 6th in season wins (42) in the Hawkeyes' illustrious wrestling history.

In post-collegiate competition, Troy was a nine-time U.S. National team member, winning the '92 World Cup and the '96 Pan-American Games. He placed 3rd at the U.S. Olympic Trials in '92 and '96, and fifth in 2000.

Mark Amaral Basketball

A veteran coach, who is well respected on the West Coast, Mark Amaral is in his fourth season as the associate head coach for the Pepperdine Men's Basketball Program. Mark began his coaching career at the NAIA level in the mid 90's. He assisted at Carroll for two seasons, Lewis-Clark State for one and Montana Tech for three. He was named the 2000 NWAACC Northern division Coach of the Year.

Coach Amaral then spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at UC Santa Barbara under Bob Williams. USBC won its first-ever Big West Conference title in 2002, and advanced to the NCAA tournament. In 2003, the Gauchos won the Big West regular season title and played in the NIT.

Mark spoke at the 2013 Clinic and is back by popular demand.

Jay Pivec Basketball

Jay Pivec is one of an elite group of college coaches with more than 600 victories. Pivec, no stranger to Montana, has an overall head collegiate coaching record of 605-258 and received NJCAA National Coach of the Year honors in 2009. He was inducted into the NJCAA men's basketball Hall of Fame in 2010.

Currently at U of St. Thomas in MN, Pivec's college coaching career spans five decades, with stops as an assistant at Minnesota State University Mankato, Augsburg College and the University of Minnesota. Coach Pivec also served as head coach at Jamestown College, Montana State-Northern and Minneapolis Community and Technical College. At MCTC, Pivec took over a program that was winless in the previous season and guided it to consistent excellence on the national level, making 4 NJCAA National Tournament appearances and playing for the Championship twice.

Rob Ash Football

Rob Ash owns a better winning percentage (.670) than all but one Bobcat head coach, and has coached in more games (97) than any coach in school history. Ash led MSU to the FCS Playoffs for the 4th time in 2014, just one fewer than all of MSU's other coaches combined.

Ash's record at MSU is 65-32. His 30 wins from 2010-12 mark the most wins and second-highest winning percentage over such a stretch in school history. Ash now stands 241-131-5 in his 35 seasons as a college head coach, with that win total standing sixth among active college coaches and 33rd all-time. He is one of just five Bobcat coaches to bring multiple championships to MSU. He is the only man to lead the Cats into four post-seasons.

Bill Himmelberg Basketball

Coach Bill Himmelberg enters his sixth year as the Lady Argos head coach. In the 14-15 season the program set a school record with 24 wins, won their first playoff game in 30 years and reached the NAIA Nationals for the first time. Awarded a No. 7 seed at the tournament, the Lady Argos upset second-seeded Loyola (La.) 73-54 and third-seeded Langston (Okla.) 72-69 to reach the Elite Eight. UGF fell to eventual national champion, Oklahoma City, 88-52.

Bill is the owner-operator of McDonald's of Great Falls since 1993, and a long-time MCA Clinic contributor. His topic will be: "Turning a Program Around with a focus on Defense"

BJ Robertson Football

2014 was B.J. Robertson's second season as head coach for Montana Western. He returned to his Alma Mater as head coach for the 2013 season after building a successful career as an assistant coach in programs at Rocky Mountain, Southern Oregon, and Rockford College. In his first season at the helm the Bulldogs finished 4-6 and improved to 6-5 during the 2014 campaign.

Bob Stitt Football

In December, Bob Stitt was named the 36th head mentor for the Griz. He comes to UM after a 15-season stint as the head coach at the Colorado School of Mines, where he had an overall record of 108-62 (63.5%) and a 83-44 (65.4%) mark in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

Stitt's teams enjoyed 13 winning seasons in his 15-year tenure, registered eight winning seasons in a row and won conference titles in 2004, 2010, and 2014. He is widely known in national coaching circles for his creative offensive mind and his innovative "fly-sweep" play. His 2014, Orediggers went 10-2 overall and 8-1 in the RMAC, and advanced to the Division II national playoffs. In 2013, they posted an 8-3 record.

Stitt was named league COY in 2004 and 2010. He was selected the Division II Football.com SW Region COY and was also tabbed the AFCA Region 5 COY in 2004. Welcome, Coach Stitt, to Big Sky Country!
